

ENVIRONMENTAL DVDs FOR YOU

The Chartered Committee for Environmental Ministry has available the following free educational DVDs and films on the environment for loan from the Sacred Garden Book Store at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Greensboro, NC, for your church, adult forums, educational efforts, and individual use. Please contact them at bookstore@holy-trinity.com or call: 336-544-1225, or write them at 215 W. Fisher St., Greensboro, NC 27401.

BLESSED EARTH	Hope for Creation and Hope for Humanity, a multiple session DVD series
AN INCONVENIENT TRUTH	Academy Award winning documentary
SEA CHANGE	Shows effects of global warming on our oceans
KILOWATT OURS	Celebrated documentary on energy saving tips on electricity
DIRTY BUSINESS	Reveals the true social and environmental costs of coal power.

Also available free are the following:

GREEN IS THE NEW RED WHITE AND BLUE

TOO HOT NOT TO HANDLE

FIGHTING GOLIATH/COVENANT

PREACHING THE PLANET

LIGHTEN UP

EVERYTHING'S COOL: A HOT DOCUMENTARY ABOUT GLOBAL WARMING

RENEWAL

BILL MOYERS ON AMERICA: IS GOD GREEN

THE GREAT WARMING

The Environmental Ministry Committee also recommends:

NO IMPACT MAN

Documentary that follows one family in New York City trying to live a year making no net environmental impact.

FLOW

Documentary on how water is being bought up by big corporations around the world.

KING CORN

A humorous yet serious look at how genetic engineering of seeds affects modern farming

DIRT

A look at the glorious & unappreciated ground beneath our feet

THE END OF SUBURBIA

Oil seen as a non-renewable energy source with an explanation of peak oil production

GOD'S CREATION AND GLOBAL WARMING

Produced by The National Council of Churches, this 12-minute video is an easy-to-understand introduction to global warming.

INTERFAITH POWER AND LIGHT SUGGESTIONS

Please see www.interfaithpowerandlight.org for an up-to-date list of documentaries recommended by this highly respected interfaith action group begun by an Episcopalian rector, Sally Bingham.