

POSITION DESCRIPTION

All Saints' Episcopal Church is seeking a creative and collaborative person to lead youth and family ministries in a transitional size church located in Concord, a growing city northeast of Charlotte, NC.

The Director of Youth and Family Ministry will work with members of the parish and the church staff to develop a coherent ministry to youth and families and connect with the wider parish community (which includes the on-campus child development center serving children at 75% of the poverty level).

A successful candidate will have a Bachelor's degree and:

- demonstrated, successful experience with children, youth and/or family ministry
- experience connecting people with their faith
- experience with recruiting volunteers
- skilled in development of online communities
- capacity to articulate a compelling vision of mission and ministry, both within and outside the church, to young people and families in a parish which has a history of leadership and service in the wider community.
- Comfortable with speaking in public

The ability to speak Spanish is considered an asset. The Director of Youth and Family Ministry reports directly to the Rector in a full-time position with benefits.

To apply, please send:

a letter outlining your interest,

accompanied by resume, and three references,

a one page (or less) response to the following: In this time, the three most important things a church must do to support young people and their families are...

to:

Email Resumes@AllSaintsConcord.org. Please add this to your list of accepted email addresses to avoid having our replies end up in your junk/spam folders.