

Trinity Episcopal Church, Fuquay-Varina

Qualities we're praying for in our new Rector:

Pastoral – we need a very compassionate, empathetic and accepting person.

Enthusiastic - a well-versed theologian, able to provoke thought and calling through inspired sermons that are relevant to today, while balancing traditional values in a modern working society.

Communicator – strong, warm, charismatic and able to attract new younger parishioners and families, with compassion for the busy working family.

Community – leading the church to become a greater part of the overall life of the community and supportive to Trinity's commitment to exponential growth in Outreach

Technological – understanding the value of and employing technology to be efficient, innovative and progressive

Participative – a open-minded leader who encourages participation in decision-making, motivates a wider of involvement from Parishioners, and promotes co-operation in common goals.

Transparent – Honest, trustworthy, accountable

Family-oriented - able to attract and build a younger demographic

Practical – a well-grounded sense of reality, able to set clear goals, having good judgement to prioritize – ability to find resources to solve problems.
